

PIC

ONLINE COURSE
INTRODUCTION
TO CHILD RIGHTS

General Manager

Lic. Julia Fonseca
Consultant. Legal/Restitution of rights Area. IIN-OAS.

Duration

10 weeks

Maximum number of participants

25- Call for States
10- Open call

Participants Profile

Professionals involved on Human Rights of children, with emphasis in staff working in the System for the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of Children and Adolescents in the States of the region.

Objectives

To provide an on-line space for reflection and knowledge exchange on child and adolescents rights.

Modality

Virtual, asynchronous (through the Moodle Platform). Eventually, there could be synchronous activities, for which will be call in due course.

Evaluation and approval criteria

In order to pass the course, participants must complete the process, comply at least 80% of the assessment activities, and achieve a final grade of 7/10 or higher. Formal aspects and elements that give an indication of the learning process will be considered.

MODULES

BASE MODULE

COMPETENCES FOR DISTANCE EDUCATION AND THE MOODLE PLATFORM

INTRODUCTORY MODULE

1. The human rights of children and adolescents.
2. Regional bodies and mechanisms to implement the human rights of children in the Americas.
3. Public policies for children and adolescents.

MODULE 1

The Convention on the Rights of the Child

MODULE 2

Public policies for children and adolescents from a rights perspective.

MODULE 3

Right to comprehensive health

MODULE 4

The right and principle of child and adolescent participation.

MODULE 5

Violence and violation of rights in childhood and adolescence

MODULE 6

Sexual exploitation of children and adolescents

MODULE 7

Children's rights and the media

FINAL ASSIGNMENT

The contents may have modifications.

MORE INFORMATION

PIC

